Scare Up Treats, Tricks and Thrills with your Disney® Visa® Card.

It's time to get out the sweaters, put up the Halloween decorations and make memories that'll have you grinning as big as a jack o' lantern. In this edition of Disney Rewards insider, you'll find dozens of ways to use your Disney Visa Card to experience spellbinding family fun. Plan to enjoy the happiest hauntings on earth at the Disneyland® Theme Parks. Dress up the entire family in new Disney costumes from Disney store and if the season has you feeling a little villainous, be sure to check out the new fantasy adventure, Maleficent: Mistress of Evil. Whatever your plans, it's a great time to treat the family to some frightfully delightful experiences. And there's no better way to get your "boos" on than with your Disney Visa Card.

Give the Kids a Taste of Fun

Find plenty of kid-friendly experiences to share at the 24th annual Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival from August 29th to November 23rd.<sup>1</sup>

The Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival has put family fun on the menu big time. "We want all ages to have a great time together while discovering great food, too," says Dave Kesting, General Manager Food and Beverage and Festivals at Epcot®. Visit TasteEpcot.com for more festival information and to book select events.

1 FUN ZONE PLAYGROUND

The Fun Zone Playground, located in Future World East, offers lots of places to explore and climb. It's perfect for the kids to burn off pent-up energy, while the adults relax with a beverage or food sample from nearby marketplaces.

2 KID-FRIENDLY CUISINE

"On the Festival Passport, we notate all the kid-friendly items with a strawberry icon," Kesting explains. "And the great part is you're purchasing small samples, so if the kids decide they don't like something, you haven't spent a lot on a full entrée they won't even touch. It's a low-risk environment for trying new tastes."

3 DISNEY DU JOUR DANCE PARTY

From the Fun Zone Playground, head to the nearby Disney Du Jour Dance Party hosted by a lively DJ seven days a week, between 5:30 PM and 8:30 PM. On Fridays and Saturdays, enjoy live performances by stars such as Meg Donnelly from Disney Channel's original movie, "Zombies" who will be performing August 30th and 31st. Additional performers will be announced in coming months.

4 CANDY SUSHI-MAKING EXPERIENCE

Learn to turn a crisped rice treat, fruit roll and candy into Candy Sushi at the Sunshine Seasons kitchen in The Land pavilion. The low-cost activity sells out quickly so reserve your spot early.

5 REMY'S RATATOUILLE HIDE & SQUEAK SCAVENGER HUNT

Purchase a map with stickers from select Festival merchandise locations and set out on a scavenger hunt for statuettes of Remy and the ingredients to make his famous ratatouille. Once you've found all the items, bring your completed map to Disney Traders and choose a surprise.

6 EPCOT® FOREVER

End your day by sharing the beauty of a new, limited-time fireworks spectacular, "Epcot® Forever," when it lights the night above the World Showcase Lagoon beginning on October 1st. The beloved spectacle "IllumiNations—Reflections of Earth" will retire on September 30th.

Find Fiendish Fun this Halloween

Join Oogie Boogie for a separately-ticketed night of adventure at Disney California Adventure® Park.<sup>1</sup>

Who could possibly make a better “monster of scare-e-monies” for an evening of delightfully frightful fun than Oogie Boogie from Tim Burton’s The Nightmare Before Christmas? He has summoned his best baddie buddies to Disney California Adventure® Park for the Oogie Boogie Bash—A Disney Halloween Party from September 17th to October 31st. The separately-ticketed event includes all the adventures shown here as part of your night of scare-e-bration!

“We began focusing on Oogie Boogie in our themed décor last year at Disney California Adventure® Park,” explains Jordan Peterson, Show Director, Disney Parks Live Entertainment. “He’s such a creepy Villain, he gave us a chance to create a slightly edgier, but still fun atmosphere that was different from the feeling at Disneyland® Park. We decided to expand his role and make him the focus of the Halloween Party when we moved it to Disney California Adventure® Park. Focusing on him gave us a great opportunity to explore new entertainment. The classic party elements are all there, but we’ve been able to expand and bring different angles to the fun!”

1 NEW WORLD OF COLOR NIGHTTIME SPECTACULAR

Experience “Villainous!” the all-new nighttime spectacular hosted by Oogie Boogie on Paradise Bay nightly during the Oogie Boogie Bash. Projections, fountains, lasers and special effects take you on a journey with Shelley Marie, a young girl trying to decide who she wants to be for Halloween. As she travels through the Magic Mirror, she encounters a host of Disney Villains including The Queen, Ursula, Dr. Facilier, Hades and other scoundrels. Oogie Boogie brings the story to a grand finale that will inspire you to celebrate your own inner villain.

2 MAGIC AT REDWOOD CREEK TRAIL

As evening falls, the Redwood Creek Challenge Trail transforms into an ethereal world of Disney Villains. Projections, sounds and special effects create a haunting dream world of color, sound, and misty shadows as stories emerge all around you.

3 DESCENDANCE DANCE PARTY

Rock out with the number one dance crew from Isle of the Lost at the DescenDance interactive dance party four to five times nightly at the Backlot area of Hollywood Land. They’ll be teaching you their best moves, so you can learn to perform like a “VK!” (Villain Kid).

4 MICKEY’S TRICK & TREAT

Join Mickey and his pals for a Halloween Party at the Disney Theater in Hollywood Land. Everyone gets involved in the telling of a fun and not-so-scary story filled with dancing, music and plenty of candy. “It’s a really cute show that’s perfect for younger tricksters,” Peterson says.

5 FIRST TIME EVER THEMED TREAT TRAILS

Oogie Boogie has invited his friends to the Oogie Boogie Bash and some of them may show up along the immersive treat trails, which have been themed to represent various worlds. You might encounter the Mad Hatter from Tim Burton’s Alice in Wonderland or even Oogie Boogie himself.

6 SEEK OUT RARE CHARACTERS

“We’ve turned meeting the Characters into its own kind of interactive experience,” Peterson says. “It’s a bit like a hunt for places to snap photos and exchange Halloween hugs. Follow a map to themed locations. You never know who you may meet, from some favorite Characters to some who are rarely seen in the Park.”

7 FRIGHTFULLY FUN PARADE

The beloved Halloween parade comes to Disney California Adventure® Park for the first time. The Headless Horseman appears to herald favorite Disney Characters on the route between Carthay Circle and Paradise Pier.

8 SPOOKTASTIC PROJECTIONS AT CARTHAY CIRCLE

Watch out for the bats at Carthay Circle on Buena Vista Street! For the first time, projections turn the theater façade into an enchanted lair with swarms of bats, green energy pulsing from within and spellbinding moments that transform the iconic tower structure. The ambiance sets the perfect tone for your evening of wonder.

New Fireworks Spectacular Lights Up the Night

Enjoy the all-new show during Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party August 16th through November 1st.<sup>1</sup>

This year, for the first time in 14 years, a new Halloween fireworks spectacular will thrill Guests at Mickey's Not-So-Scary Halloween Party, a separately-ticketed event, at Magic Kingdom® Park at Walt Disney World® Resort.

NEW TECHNOLOGY, SURPRISES AND FUN

"Our previous show, Happy Hallowishes was a great show," says Kate Pappas, Managing Producer Disney Parks Live Entertainment. "But we wanted to tap into all the current technology available to us now to create something amazing for our Guests. The new show, Disney's Not-So-Spooky Spectacular, includes projections on the Castle, lasers, lighting effects and of course—fireworks!" It also focuses on the classic Disney Characters, Mickey, Minnie, Donald and Goofy. "It's the first time we've featured them in a Halloween fireworks show," says Pappas.

STATE-OF-THE-ART STORYTELLING

"We had so much fun developing this story," Pappas says. "Guests will see huge projections of Mickey, Minnie, Goofy and Donald trick or treating across Cinderella Castle, which we've turned into a haunted house. As the friends explore each room, they run into dancing skeletons, waltzing ghosts and more. Eventually they fall down a rabbit hole into a space where they meet various Disney Villains. And, of course, the evening ends with a huge fireworks finale."

MORE WAYS TO PARTY

There's lots more to enjoy this Halloween. Trick or treat throughout the Park, catch Mickey's Boo to You Parade and don't miss a favorite Halloween show—the Hocus Pocus Villain Spelltacular. Or, follow an enhanced treat trail at the Monsters, Inc. Laugh Floor in Tomorrowland where some of your favorite monsters will be waiting to admire your costumes, share a laugh and interact with you.

BOO-FUL SAVINGS ON HALLOWEEN KEEPSAKES

To get your party started, visit Disneyworld.com to buy tickets, or call the Disney Reservation Center at (407) 827-7350. And, remember to enjoy your Cardmember savings of 10% off select merchandise purchases of $50 or more at select locations to take home a Halloween memento of the fun you've shared.<sup>5</sup>

Themed Celebrations on the High Seas

Celebrate the holidays or share special day-long themed celebrations on select Disney Cruise Line sailings.

"We are always looking for special ways to engage our Guests," says Lesley Dallas, Cruise Director for Disney Cruise Line. "Themed cruises give us an opportunity to create even more personal experiences and lasting memories." Cardmembers get a promotional APR of 0% for 6 months on select Disney cruises from the date of purchase with your Disney Visa Card, so prepare to ship out for adventure.<sup>4</sup>

HALLOWEEN ON THE HIGH SEAS CRUISES

Set sail for Halloween adventures on most sailings from September through the end of October. Watch the lighting of the pumpkin tree, dress up in your costume and enjoy meeting some of your favorite Characters in their Halloween attire. A costume contest exclusively for adults, family games and trick or treating in select shipboard locations add to the fun. The festivities culminate in Mickey's Mouse-querade Party with Mickey, Minnie and their pals.

VERY MERRYTIME CRUISES

It's a high seas sleigh ride, when Santa Claus climbs onboard during the Very Merrytime cruises from November through late December. View a life-sized Gingerbread House, attend the Christmas treelighting ceremony and dance at Mickey's Winter Wonderland Ball. Top it all off with the Deck the Deck Tropical Holiday Party. "It's a truly magical gift to share with the family," Dallas says.

STAR WARS DAY AT SEA CRUISES

Cruise to another galaxy for a day of epic fun, during a special Star Wars day offered on select 7-night Caribbean cruises in early 2020. Encounter over a dozen Star Wars Characters onboard, test your Star Wars knowledge in trivia games and end the day with the Summon the Force deck show complete with out-of-this-galaxy fireworks.

Casting a Spell on Costumes

Enter the fantasy world of Maleficent: Mistress of Evil in theaters October 18th.

In a fantasy adventure film, the costume designer's vision is especially critical, not to mention challenging. Award-winning costume designer, Ellen Mirojnick talks with us about her role in creating the magic in Maleficent: Mistress of Evil.

Q: HOW DOES COSTUME DESIGN SUPPORT STORY AND CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT?

A: My role is to bring the characters to life visually. When I read a script, I first envision images. Working with the director, the actors and all the different artists involved in filmmaking, we conceive a theme about the overarching film vision. I then begin to apply that vision to the costume designs to show how the characters feel, how they move through the story and how they change. Costuming is about subtly, subliminally conveying the characters' emotions and personalities to the audience to heighten their understanding.

Q: HOW DID YOU BEGIN YOUR CREATIVE WORK ON THIS FILM?

A: I researched art from many different eras including contemporary fashion. Then, I created the look book with images for all the characters in each of the film segments. From it, the director and other film artists could see what I was envisioning. The look book becomes a foundation and valuable tool for the costume department. But like every creative process, things evolve and change. Nothing is set in stone. Sometimes, something doesn't work out as well as you thought, so you have to adjust.

Q: CAN YOU GIVE AN EXAMPLE?

A: I chose a range of fabrics and stones for Queen Ingrith, and everyone was very happy with them, but then when we realized Michelle Pfeiffer was playing the role, we needed to change a few things to work with her coloring. We then recognized that the fabrics selected for King John didn't work. So, all those King John fabrications had to change. You have to keep the actor in mind when you're making your design and fabrication choices.

Q: HOW ARE THE PERSONALITIES OF THE THREE MAIN FEMALE CHARACTERS EXPRESSED IN THEIR COSTUMES?

A: The Queen is very regal, so her costumes and accessories use a lot of jewelry and gem stones to signify enormous wealth and greed. Aurora's costumes have a delicate, hand-crafted look as if they're made by the Fairies from natural materials. Maleficent is still Maleficent—but she too grows in her own way. You'll have to see the film to see how her costumes reflect those changes.

Q: WHERE DID YOU FIND THE KINDS OF UNIQUE FABRICS, SHOES AND ACCESSORIES YOU NEEDED?

A: We constructed everything—from shoes to headwear. We had an extraordinary jewelry maker; there was a textile artist who was brilliant at taking ordinary basic fabric—like cotton—and turning it into something you've never seen before. We had experts in dyeing, distressing and aging fabric, making footwear, headwear and even trim. I had an enormous team of exceptionally talented artists.

"I loved working on this film so much because I was given a task of creating a world that is part of a story you haven't seen before. The challenges were great, but I was blessed with a great team. They were just a dream."

— Ellen Mirojnick, Costume Designer

Disney Halloween Makeup DIY

You truly can't go wrong with the timeless princess look. Glass slippers or not, one bat of these lengthy lashes and royalty will come running. In case you need backup for the ball, suit up your mini-me in a matching Cinderella costume from Disney store or shopDisney.com.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1 Apply your go-to glam makeup routine of primer, concealer, foundation and brow makeup.
- 2 Use light eyeshadow on the full eye. Then, apply a blue shadow in and above the crease, blending upwards. Use a cool-toned pale white on the lid. Continue with a darker shade of blue on the outer lid into the deep crease and finish with a white/silver shimmer.

- 3 Apply pale white and a touch of shimmer to the brow bone, highlight area, lower lash line and corner of eye. Add blue accents and finish the eye with a black winged eyeliner, black mascara and false eyelashes.
- 4 Contour cheekbones and use a rosy pink blush. Add white shimmer to the upper cheek bone, nose and Cupid's bow. Finish everything off with a pink glossy lipstick and setting spray to keep makeup in place.

Visit a World on the Edge of Wild Space

For 40 years, Star Wars has taken us to intergalactic worlds that have captured our imaginations. Now, with the opening of Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge at Disney's Hollywood Studios® at Walt Disney World® Resort on August 29th and the opening at Disneyland® Park which occurred in May, Guests can actually experience one of those worlds with every sense from sight and sound to touch and smell.

"We chose Batuu because we wanted to create a place Star Wars fans have never been and a narrative they've never seen in any other form of media," says Scott Mallwitz, Executive Creative Director for Walt Disney Imagineering. "We didn't want to simply recreate a place from one of the films or retell an existing legend. Batuu is definitely part of the Star Wars storytelling legacy, but it is a remote planet on the edge of wild space. None of the other films, animation, books and games have taken us there. It is a completely new place to explore. This allowed us to define Batuu in terms of its characteristics, history, occupants and its aesthetics down to the smallest details, even the way the buildings are surfaced."

"We wanted to surprise and delight Guests who love the Star Wars legacy. Most of all we wanted Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge to be optimistic, immersive, joyful and fun!"

— Scott Mallwitz, Executive Creative Director for Walt Disney Imagineering

The decision to focus on Batuu freed Walt Disney Imagineers to do what they do best—imagine, create and build an immersive world. "It liberated us," Mallwitz says. "It was thrilling to have the opportunity to create this planet, this port, this story from scratch. Of course, we researched all the previous Star Wars media. We also referenced real-world places like Marrakesh and Istanbul because Batuu is a thriving marketplace. Then we looked at everything through the lens of Batuu to find our key storytelling elements."

AUTHENTICITY IN EVERY DETAIL

"From the outset of development, which began in 2015, we set the goal of providing an authentic Star Wars experience," Mallwitz says. "We wanted to surprise and delight Guests who love the Star Wars legacy. Most of all we wanted Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge to be optimistic, joyful and fun! To achieve that, the teams began with key concept art exploring the kinds of buildings, decorations, even the fabrications that the world of Batuu would feature. Every piece of art was evaluated against our criteria of authenticity," says Mallwitz. "We'd ask ourselves, 'Does this feel realistic to Star Wars, could this have fit into any of the films?'"

REAL LIFE IN BATUU

Our Guests are entering a truly immersive environment. To enhance that, we have created a world that is 'real' to its inhabitants," Mallwitz says. "The residents of Batuu have no awareness of the concept of Star Wars. You won't find references to it of any kind—there is nothing that says 'Star Wars' because to the Guest this is simply present-day Batuu and the people who live here are going about their day-to-day lives in a working spaceport at the edge of the galaxy. Guests will enter that reality as if they are travelers, and we're going to treat them as such."

Out of this Galaxy Sips

Quench your thirst like a Wookiee at Oga's Cantina, where you'll find non-alcoholic beverages and adult concoctions unlike anything you've ever seen on planet Earth. "We began brainstorming in 2015 by listing the planets from the Star Wars films and thinking what kind of drink it might inspire," says Brian Koziol, Food and Beverage Concept Director. "For instance, the 'Outer Rim,' has a rim of black salt inspired by Mustafar, the volcanic planet. And the 'Cliff Dweller,' is inspired by the Porg in Star Wars: The Last Jedi.

We continually asked ourselves what makes a Star Wars beverage. Each drink had to be colorful, combine unusual flavors and have a truly unique presentation. Whether it froths, foams, smokes or bubbles, each one looks like something you'd only find at a Star Wars Cantina. I hope our Guests have as much fun sipping them as we did creating them," said Koziol.

BLUE & GREEN MILK MARVELS

These iconic Star Wars drinks are plant-based dairy delights with tantalizing blends of fruit flavors.

CONCOCTIONS WORTH A TOAST

Alcoholic concoctions include the Outer Rim, Besspin Fizz, Yub Nub, Bloody Rancor and Fuzzy Tauntaun.

Whatever your drink of choice, find the perfect option for toasting your experiences at Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge.

Subject to capacity. Oga's Cantina may require reservations. Must be at least 21 years old to consume alcohol; photo ID required.
