Tricks, Treats and Fun at the Disneyland® Resort

From Villain sightings to fireworks, special treats and more, spellbinding fun is waiting at the Disneyland® Resort this Halloween from August 23rd to October 31st.²

They're eerie, elegant and evil. They're the Disney Villains, and at Halloween they come out to play at the Disneyland® Resort. But they're not the only thing that make the season wickedly good fun. Throughout the Resort there are plenty of sights to make you howl with delight, including seeing some favorite Characters all decked out in brand-new costumes created for the season.

FRIGHTFUL DELIGHTS AT DISNEY CALIFORNIA ADVENTURE® PARK

Oogie Boogie's ominous silhouette above the Park turnstile, Buena Vista Street decked out in eerie shades of purple and green and villainous projections at Carthay Circle set the tone for Halloween at Disney California Adventure® Park. Cruise over to Cars Land to see how the residents of Radiator Springs have transformed it into "Radiator Screams." Feeling daring? Race with Rocket to rescue Groot at Guardians of the Galaxy—Monsters After Dark. But in between chasing monsters, take time to enjoy a fiesta of color and music at the Día de los Muertos celebration at Paradise Gardens Park, where you can enjoy the music of Coco. Then, catch Mickey's Trick 'n' Treat Show at Disney Junior Dance Party which is perfect for youngsters who will love the friendly spirit Mickey brings to the season! And, after all that adventuring, treat yourself to devilishly delicious Halloween treats throughout the Park. Be sure to take time to check out some frightfully delightful Halloween-themed merchandise from t-shirts to décor and more. It's a great way to bring home a memory of the boo-tiful time you've had.

When the sun goes down, more frightful fun kicks in at Oogie Boogie Bash, a separately-ticketed event on select nights from August 24th through October 31st. Oogie Boogie has invited his friends to hang out on several different treat trails. You'll also meet some favorite baddies, plus several new ones each year. And see some favorite mischief makers in the Frightfully Fun Parade during the party. For more information, or to purchase tickets (subject to availability) for a night you'll remember "in your screams," visit Disneyland.com/Halloween.

FESTIVE FALL FUN AT DISNEYLAND® PARK

Here's where you'll also find Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse and their friends dressed in their all-new costumes. "Seeing Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse and their friends in new Halloween costumes is a big deal for Guests," says Trevor Rush, Costume Development Producer. "Many Guests will even craft their own costumes replicating exactly what the Characters are wearing. It's so cute! So, if you are handy with a needle and thread, you'll have plenty of time to make your own look-a-like costume," Rush says.

If you love hanging out with the Disney Villains, you'll see them making appearances throughout the Park. Strike a pose with them—if you dare! For even more "baddie" sightings, hurry over to Villains Dance Party at Tomorrowland Terrace on select nights where different Villains come to rock out with Guests.

You can also join Jack Skellington and Sally for a photo opportunity at the newly-refreshed Haunted Mansion Holiday inspired by Tim Burton's The Nightmare Before Christmas. Say hello to Miguel from Coco at the Día de los Muertos display at El Zócalo Park in Frontierland. And when darkness falls, turn your eyes to the skies for the Halloween Screams firework spectacular on select nights. "Halloween is a special time at the Parks," Rush says. "There's a different energy. It's a holiday for everyone and anyone who wants to embrace it."

From Prepping to Plating

Discover what's behind the culinary creativity at the EPCOT® International Food & Wine Festival August 29th through November 23rd.²

Every year, the EPCOT® International Food & Wine Festival attracts Guests who are eager to sample both tantalizing new tastes and returning favorite foods and beverages, representing countries from around the world. But, what does it take to go from planning and prepping to plating?

“Planning for our next festival begins the moment we open the current festival,” says Kevin Downing, Chef de Cuisine for EPCOT® Festivals. “We ask ourselves, ‘what dishes were a big hit with Guests at previous festivals and which of them should we bring back?’ There are some menu items that are so popular that if we didn’t offer them, Guests would definitely let us know!” This is also the time when new marketplaces are planned, as well as ideas for refreshing existing ones. Next comes the tasting and testing, as a group of eight talented and diverse sous chefs begin creating dishes. “We are looking for interesting ingredient choices, unexpected flavor combinations and something that makes each dish unique,” Downing says. “It’s an exciting creative process.”

Based on those tastings, menus are finalized and logistics kick in—big time. “We need to order ingredients for literally thousands of servings of each dish during the Festival,” Downing says. “How many tons of sweet potatoes, how many hundreds of crates of berries?” This is not your usual grocery shopping list!

Meanwhile, other teams are bringing their magic touch to creating unique offerings that add their own special seasoning to the event, while other teams are designing beautiful Festival merchandise, marketplace décor and more. “The Festival is a huge team effort,” Downing says. “Everyone is invested in making it a superb experience for Guests.”

The 2024 EPCOT® International Food & Wine Festival will feature new marketplaces. “The marketplace selections will focus on fall foods and flavors,” Downing says. “We are going beyond the usual seasonal ingredients like apples and pumpkins and using other foods that capture the flavors in unique ways, such as a brined pork tenderloin with fennel slaw at Autumn Blaze and a wild game chili at Harvest Table, both new marketplaces.”

“I am always excited about the creative process that goes into the Festival,” he concludes. “When we get to opening day, there’s an electricity in the air, an energy from the Guests and the Cast Members. It’s thrilling to walk through the Park and hear the buzz of excitement everywhere.”

And then, they begin planning all over again for next year! For more information, visit DisneyWorld.com/FoodandWine.

If you're dreaming of finally booking that long-awaited cruise and thinking a stop at a beautiful tropical island floats your boat, choose from select sailings where you can make that fantasy come true with a day of play at Disney Lookout Cay at Lighthouse Point on the island of Eleuthera. "The Walt Disney creative teams have done amazing work with local artists and artisans to pay tribute to the beauty and culture of The Bahamas," says Kristin Bunnell, Director, Production, Design & Technical, Disney Live Entertainment. "One of the outstanding elements is our 'Junkanoo Rush,' a recreation of Junkanoo, a major festival and the heartbeat of Bahamian culture and life."

FUN FOR EVERY AGE

You'll find so many options for your day of adventure you may find it hard to choose! In addition to family beach play and water activities, there are games and activities at the Play-Play Pavilion, and activities and water play for the younger set at Sebastian's Cove. Teens and tweens can participate in a sand creature sculpting competition and scavenger hunt. A Nature Trail and a Discovery Trail offer opportunities to learn about the native flora and fauna. And adults may choose to relax at a tranquil adult-exclusive beach or sip and dine at an exclusive market-style dining area. "It's been a joy for all of us to create this special experience at Disney Lookout Cay," Bunnell concludes. "My hope is that long after their journey ends, Guests will feel as if they've learned something about the Bahamian culture and had a wonderful time doing it!"

Action Meets Humor and the Results are Explosive

An interview with Wendy Jacobson, a producer of Marvel Studios' Deadpool & Wolverine.

Prepare for fast and furious action—and a barrage of comedic quips when Wade/Deadpool (Ryan Reynolds) and Logan/Wolverine (Hugh Jackman) team up for the first time in Deadpool & Wolverine. It's an unexpected combination because the two classic comic book Super Heroes have never exactly been "besties." But when Wolverine, who is recovering from injuries, crosses paths with loudmouth Deadpool, the two must team up to defeat a common enemy. We chatted with Wendy Jacobson to get the scoop on this highly anticipated film.

Q: WHAT MAKES DEADPOOL & WOLVERINE A GREAT ENTERTAINMENT EXPERIENCE?

A: Well, it's an exciting Super Hero action picture, of course, and it's packed with humor. Deadpool's super power is his ability to heal—and maybe his relentless wisecracking. He "breaks the fourth wall" constantly when he steps out of the story to make comments to the audience. They're sarcastic, snarky, funny and they add a sharp, edgy humor to the film.

Q: TELL US HOW THE CHARACTER, WADE WILSON (DEADPOOL), EVOLVES IN THIS FILM.

A: The first Deadpool movie was a love story. Deadpool 2 was about family. I can't give much away about Wade's emotional journey in this new film, but we are definitely venturing into new territory.

Q: WHAT CAN AUDIENCES EXPECT FROM THE ACTION SEQUENCES?

A: The action sequences are very inventive and visceral. Audiences will see action like they've never seen before, and I think minds will be blown! Additionally, we wanted the film to be as authentic as possible, so a lot of it was shot on location.

Q: WHAT HAS IT BEEN LIKE TO WORK WITH RYAN REYNOLDS AND HUGH JACKMAN?

A: They are both comedic geniuses and brilliant actors. Working with them has been like taking a master class in comedic writing and acting. Plus, it's amazing to see these two gigantic movie stars on screen together.

Q: WHAT GIVES THE MARVEL STORIES SO MUCH POWER OVER OUR IMAGINATIONS?

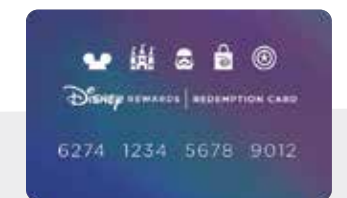

A: In every Marvel film, there's a human element and angle that makes the stories relatable to ordinary people. It's not just about the characters' super

"Your little cinematic universe is about to change forever."

powers. It's about their emotional journeys, their struggles, fears and joys. Marvel films, including Deadpool & Wolverine, take the time to find and develop those elements that audiences connect with. And ultimately, I believe that is the films' true super power.
